

Message Reflection Guide

Always Fresh. Never Frozen | Colossians 4:2-6

Begin with Prayer

Pray that the Holy Spirit would illuminate the words of Scripture so that you may understand how God is communicating with you.

Conversation Starter

What's one skill or habit you learned from a job, coach, or mentor that stuck with you?

Read Colossians 4:2-6

Encourage through prayer

Paul says to “continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful and thankful.” What does it look like to wrestle in prayer for someone else (see Colossians 4:12)? How does that differ from casual or routine prayer?

Who in your life needs prayer right now—not just for comfort, but for spiritual breakthrough or gospel impact? How can you pray with urgency and expectancy this week?

Focus on Jesus

Paul asks for prayer that “God may open a door for the word.” What does this teach us about the role of the Holy Spirit in evangelism and discipleship? Why is gospel clarity so important?

Where do you see God opening doors in your life—at work, in your family, or in your community? How can you walk through those doors with obedience and gospel focus?

Sharing Jesus

Paul says our speech should be “full of grace, seasoned with salt.” What does that mean in the context of sharing the gospel?

Think of someone who doesn't yet know Jesus. What's one story, experience, or question you could share that might stir spiritual curiosity or open a gospel conversation?

Prayer

Father God, thank You for calling us into Your mission of making disciples. Jesus, thank You for showing us how to live with purpose, humility, and boldness. Holy Spirit, empower us to pray with urgency, walk through open doors, and speak with grace and wisdom. Help us become disciple-making disciples. In Jesus's name we pray, Amen.
